"Animals Make Better People, We Make Better Animals®"

Join Show Chow® and Honor™ Show Feed brand Ph.D.'s and nationally respected show pig and lamb breeders as they discuss nutrition, management and showmanship on sale and show animals. Show animals that perform to their genetic potential as well as look good is the goal of most owners. This panel will highlight the effects of feeding properly balanced diets to build better show pigs and show lambs.

MONDAY
March 26

Panelists include:

- Dr. Kevin Burgoon, Technical Nutritionist, Show Feeds
 - Dr. Burgoon is the Senior Formulator and Technical Nutritionist for all Honor™ Show Feeds. His family has been actively involved in the show pig and show lamb industries.

- Ryan Watje – W-D Swine Farm
 - Ryan is the co-owner/operator of W-D Swine Farm in Modesto, California. W-D Swine Farm is a 200-head hog operation of purebred and commercial sows in Central California. They have 10 stud boars that are available to the public for semen contracts. Their focus is on meeting the demand of the market and show pig industry.

- Clay Weber – Weber Show Lambs
 - Clay is a breeder of registered Hampshires. A nationally respected lamb judge, Clay teaches at Linn-Benton Community College in Oregon.
